MAKRONISOS ISLAND

The Island of Makronisos is located to the northwest of Kea island, opposite to Lavrio town. Its landscape is rocky and infertile and it presents ancient ruins of the Neolithic era. Its sad later history has eclipsed the island's significance in ancient times; It was the place of refuge for the beautiful Helen when the Trojan War broke out. Today Makronisos stands as an islet of torture and shame in the memory of the Greeks as it was turned into a prison for communists, political prisoner and defectors. Makronisos has been declared as a Civil War monument.

SYROS ISLAND

This is the island where Greek tradition and western influence come to a harmonious marriage. Ermoúpoli (meaning "the city of Hermes") is the island's capital town and has been the first important trade and industrial centre of the country in the 19th century.

Evidence of this glorious past can be seen on public buildings (the City Hall, the Customs Office, "Apollo" theatre), on the neoclassical houses and at the beautiful squares.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Ano Syros • International Cyclades
Music Festival • Classical Music Festival

CYCLADES

MYKONOS ISLAND

Mykonos is a wonderful Cycladic island, worth visiting at any time of the year. However it is a must to enjoy the days of its summer glory, when it literally becomes an international village, when its community of believers make it a sight worth seeing, when one can experience the unique feeling that everything and everyone is in Mykonos. Surrounded by Tinos, Syros, Paros and Naxos, a small island stands out, globally renown as one of the most popular tourism centers of the Mediterranean.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Village Ano Mera • Church Paraportiani
Museums in Chora • Traditional & unique feasts

PAROS ISLAND

Paros is so fascinating on so many levels that many people love it having seen only one of its faces. Don't jump to conclusions about what you like, get to know the island first and find your "own" Paros, the face that suits you best. No doubt, though, it will charm you even if you see a different side from the one expected. The island of Paros is famous for its golden beaches, clear blue waters and nightlife.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Parikia • Lefkes village • Dilion • Askliption
Valley of the Butterflies • Ancient Marble Quarries
Panagia Ekatonapyliani • Local festivities in Naousa, Alyki & Prodromos

ANTIPAROS ISLAND

Antiparos is an island mostly seen from the sea. Because it is impossible to resist the calling of the sea, a trip with a boat, surfing, the feeling you only get when floating in water. And once out of the water, Antiparos offers beautiful sights, warm people, flavours and feasts so you can enjoy the life you deserve.

DESPOTIKO ISLAND

The isle of Despotiko is one of the finest uninhabited islands of the Aegen, with great archaeological interest. It offers spectacular views towards the islands of Antiparos, Folegandros, Kimolos, Syros, Serifos, Sikinos & Sifnos. At Despotiko one will have the opportunity to discover and admire the turquoise waters of its pristine bays and coves. Two bays on its southern side are amongst the best ones for yacht lovers. Please, show your utmost respect this beautiful archaeological site and never take anything with you other than pictures!

CYCLADES

KEA ISLAND

Kea or Tzia Is the 'gate' to the Cyclades, the Far West Island of the Cyclades and closest to Attica. It's beautiful and rare natural environment, the originality of its villages and memories of past times fascinate visitors from the first moment, as thousands of years of history unfold before their eyes.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Ancient Karthea • The Kea Lion
Prehistoric settlement of Agia Irini
Hellenistic tower of Agia Marina
